

Workshop Facilitator Profile

Monisha Singh Diwan, contributes as an ECD Consultant, in particular as the coordinator for the intervention on Early Childhood and Social-Emotional Learning at UNICEF, East Asia Pacific Regional Office, Bangkok.

She has over 20 years of experience in supporting ECD programmes and her interests and experience are in the area of ECD Workforce training at different levels, Parenting Education, Programme Design & Development and Programmatic Quality assessments, spanning varied settings and geographies. She has a Masters in Human Development and Family Studies from the M.S. University of Baroda, India and graduate degrees in Child Development and Education. She has contributed as a steering committee member in ECD National (AECED) and International (ARNEC) Networks.

She counts her blessings for getting opportunities to contribute to the early years, the most critical years which shape the human life ahead, and hopes that more young people take to it as their profession.
